WEEK 1: FINDING GODFIDENCE THROUGH IDENTITY

Definition of Confidence – con·fi·dence

the feeling or belief that one can rely on someone or something; firm trust.

Definition of Godfidence

if confidence comes from the belief you can rely on someone and that someone is God, it produces godfidence.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding.

Seek His will in all you do, and He will show you which path to take.
(Prov 3:5-6)

Reflection: (note section on following page)

As you move ahead in your day/week, know that it is God's opinion of you that gives you value. You can have the confidence of knowing you are who he says you are, and not those old narratives.

Daily declarations will help you to shift your inner belief systems to align to a healthier and happier version of you. Use declarations to help you to reframe your thinking.

Here are some helpful declarations that we call "I AM" Statements:

I am God's Masterpiece. I am defined by his divine nature.

I am held together by his promises. I am godfident.

WEEK 2: OVERCOMING SHAME (PART 1)

2 Peter 1:3–4

³ By His divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know Him, the one who called us to Himself by means of His marvelous glory and excellence.

⁴ And because of His glory and excellence, He has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share His divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires.

Healing the Shame Shadow

■ You will want to challenge the five core 'shame' messages that cause you to feel worthless or small:

1. You are no good.
2. You are not good enough.
3. You are unlovable.
4. You don't belong.
5. You shouldn't exist.

SHAME BREAKING STATEMENTS

- I accept myself completely without qualifiers
- I choose deep inner peace with-in myself as I am
- I will only say positive things about myself
- I choose to forgive myself for all I have done
- I choose to forgive every person in my life who undermined my self-esteem
- I dissolve all false images of myself from the past
- I love and accept all parts of myself

Are there people, including yourself, that you are struggling to forgive and need to ask God's help? List them below.

Declare out loud: – for each one, declare out loud.

"Dear God, With your help, I choose to forgive [person]."

Forgiveness in Six Steps

1. Know exactly how you feel about what happened & be able to articulate what about the situation is not OK.
2. Make a commitment to yourself. Forgiveness is for you and not for anyone else.
3. Understand that forgiveness does not necessarily mean reconciliation with the person who hurt you or condoning their actions.
4. Get the right perspective on how the offense is effecting you.
5. Either talk directly to or write a letter to the person who hurt you expressing how it hurt you and that you forgive them.
6. Do not expect the other person recognizes the need to be forgiven. They may not reciprocate.

R. Mark Gordon

Add to your I AM statements:

I AM Forgiven. I am Forgiving. I am free of shame.

I'm Possible. I am godfident.

WEEK 4: WHO IS YOUR SOURCE?

Your identity and value is found in Jesus, the author and perfecter of your faith. Don't allow the world to put a price tag on you, not society nor your family of origin or friends. Jesus alone places the value on you -- which is PRICELESS.

How has the life of Jesus changed your opinion of yourself?
